We hear you

Any gripes, kudos, or ideas? Call 378-9136 to sound off.

I read in the Consumer's Corner column last week about the man who paid $101 for an ambulance ride and I have some questions. I live in Campbell and know we have paramedic service provided by the fire department. I'd like to know if they charge and also, what are ambulance charges, if any, for Campbell residents.

Curious

Editor's note: First, there's no charge to those receiving paramedic service individually. The overall cost of the program is supported by property and sales tax revenues. But, when an ambulance is also used for a rescue call, the patient (or family) is billed for the service. According to a spokesman for Bigley Ambulance Service, the basic rate is $64 on emergency runs ($55 for prearranged transit) plus $2.50 per mile and extra for additional services. Last year I was transported by ambulance to Kaiser Hospital in Santa Clara and the bill for that was over $90.

I was ashamed to read about the behavior of coaches and players (in We Hear You) recently. Sure people can get all riled up over a close game. But there's no excuse for losing all that extra yardage for unsportsman-like conduct.

A Fan

The answer by the Campbell high football coach to criticism about conduct at the Leigh-Campbell game was ridiculous. What did he mean, "I'm only the football coach,?" That's what all the fuss was about anyway ... the conduct of the coaches.

A Reader

I think that Orchard City drive is one of the biggest improvements I've seen in Campbell and I've lived here over 35 years. Now I read they want to put a stop light on 2nd st. at Orchard City Drive. In my opinion, that's going to spoil the whole thing. It's been so nice (lately) to come through town without any traffic problems.

Old Timer

Editor's note: According to Engineering Manager Bill Helms, "We don't have any specific plans for now to install traffic signals along Orchard City drive." The idea for a stop light was presented by a citizen at one of the public hearings on federal housing and community development funds for Campbell and it was for the intersection of 1st st. and Orchard City drive. Helms says, at the direction of the City Council, the Public Works Department will be doing a standard traffic signal warrant study on that intersection which includes measuring gaps in the traffic, accident history plus volumes of traffic. Unless all criteria are met, that intersection could not qualify for a signal.

I'm calling about the coverage of the Westmont-Leigh football game. I've never seen such biased reporting. Two pictures of the Westmont team and none of Leigh. I'm surprised they even mentioned the (Leigh player's) names.

William Hansen
A Leigh parent

Editor's note: We get calls like this occasionally and you're right — the stories are geared (slanted if you like) to give the most information about local teams. Our sports department covers four areas (and four papers) and if you'd seen the SUN paper last week you'd have thought it was slanted towards Leigh because they (in their circulation area) got all the attention.

Record enrollment drop this semester

They're losing the numbers game in elementary schools

THIS YEAR Campbell elementary schools lost a record 739 students, 200 more than they expected, and officials intend to find out why.

Last week Ron Rescigno, director of personnel and staff development, issued a 60 page report which gives enrollment projects in the Campbell elementary school district for the next 10 years. But it didn't answer the question about the rapid decline.

Those 200 plus students represent a little over $200,000 to the district. Budget planning and staff was based on estimates of an expected enrollment drop of over 500 students from last year and officials felt this was an ample allowance. But, when first reports came in from the 18 district schools, that "ample" allowance wasn't enough.

IN FACT this year the district, with an enrollment of 8,273, is within two students of their 1960 school year. Between 1950 and 1967 enrollment skyrocketed to a record 11,760 youngsters then began declining. And that trend is expected to continue till 1986 when 6,064 kindergarten through sixth grade students are expected.

Several factors account for the rapid decline, officials reported last week. These include families moving out of the district, the lower birth rate and students within the district attending private or parochial schools.

Rescigno says the district knows that at least 500 youngsters who live within the district now attend private schools and he wants to find out why.

So far he has a list of 17 private schools he's contacting and he also plans to survey parents of these youngsters to find out why they're shelling out additional tuition, in addition to supporting public schools through property taxes.

"WE PLAN TO conduct an anonymous survey to get some answers to our questions,"he explained.

Losing students is one big concern with the district but another is trying to get the best estimate of next year's enrollment so staffing and materials purchased will meet (but not exceed) those needs.

And the district didn't do too well this year.

Rescigno told trustees last Thursday that local school principals, through the aid of parent volunteers, will be conducting a mini-census to determine just how many students their schools will have next year.

The official county census had figures on population and their ages but, unfortunately, it's not much use in planning for next year's crop of kindergartners. Census figures, for instance, have an age category of 0-4 years without breaking the ages down further.

AT THE OCT. 14 board meeting trustees commissioned Professor Dr. Phillip Blair of San Jose state university to prepare an enrollment projection at a maximum cost of $1,500. His findings made up the voluminous report presented to trustees last week.

Blair's conclusions, while helpful for future planning, still don't answer the "why" for this year's drop.

"BIRTH trends in the Campbell Union School District generally follow the national and state pattern," Blair reported. He recommended that a household survey be obtained by school administrators "to improve the accuracy of enrollment forecasting."

HCD funding

Council has $300,000 decision to make Monday

CITY OFFICIALS are expected to approve several projects for funding under the Housing and Urban Development Program Monday night. But just which projects they'll pick for the estimated $330,000 in funds next year is anybody's guess.

Last week the Council Chamber was packed as city councilmen held the public hearing on HCD funding and several people appeared to add new ideas to the list.

Like the spokesman from the Timber Cove mobile home park and about 35 supporters who want something done to clean up the appearance of old Camden road (see related story and pictures).

Other speakers and their requests included:

Dwane Reed representing the Campbell Bobby Sox softball league and Campbell Area Youth Sports Association, asked for improvement in facilities for the estimated 4,500 local youngsters in organized sports programs. "We never have enough facilities," Reed declared.

MARIAN GORDON of the Campbell Senior Social Club asked councilmen for "a home" for her group, now 100 strong. Officials said they'll look into the group using an empty school classroom for meetings.

Bill Hedley, representing the downtown development group, urged the Council to consider funding part of the costs for a semi-mall in downtown Campbell.

Civic Improvement Commissioner Lillian Moore, who said she was speaking on behalf of low income and senior citizens, asked for funds for pre-planning for low income-senior housing.

EARLIER, public hearings on HCD funding for 1977 resulted in recommendations ranging from a senior citizen center to installing a traffic signal at First st. and the new Orchard City drive.

But before officials can earmark those funds, and get the application in before the Dec. 15 deadline, they'll need some cost figures for projects.

And several councilmen asked staff to come back Monday night with cost estimates on specific projects.

These include:

- Improvements to the Sunnyoaks street area (Councilman Norman Paul).
- Costs for a community school pilot program (Paul).
- Housing rehabilitation cost estimates and land banking for future community needs (Councilman Rusty Hammer).
- Undergrounding utilities and improvements on Campbell ave. plus the cost of relocating the old fire station (Councilman Dean Chamberlin).

Six seek spot on civic commission

Six individuals submitted application papers for the opening on the Civic Improvement Commission by the deadline Monday afternoon.

The vacancy was created with the resignation of Dave Jury who moved out of the city last month.

Those applying include: Ralph Pfirrman, 42, 266 California st., a financial manager; Colette A. Weil-Stiltz, 25, 52 Michael dr., apt. 29, college student; Sibyl Stevenson, 74, 111 W. Rincon ave., a retired social worker; Ray T. Colleary, 40, 600 N. Central ave., training director for San Mateo county; Rosalyn R. Bernstein, 59, 1845 S. Bascom ave., apt. 39-C, executive secretary, and Clarence Jones, 39, 893 Harriet ave., a manager.

The City Council is expected to set interview dates at their meeting Monday.

Lubeckis is on the road to recovery

Oleg Lubeckis, chairman of the Campbell Planning Commission, missed last Thursday's meeting but he had a good excuse. The 65 year old commissioner underwent open heart surgery Nov. 29 at O'Connor Hospital and reported he was "feeling fine," earlier this week.

Following the bypass surgery, performed by Dr. G. Silver, Lubeckis spent several days in the intensive care and recovery units at O'Connor but is now in a regular room and receiving visitors.

The local official expects to be released from the hospital later this week and to be back at his commission duties within a month.

He's a peach of a pooch

Extending a personal invitation to the Community Christmas Party at the Campbell library this Wednesday, Dec. 15, is the cartoon canine cutup who'll be up to his old tricks that evening. The event, which features entertainment, goodies for the youngsters, and everyone pitching in to decorate the tree starts at 7 p.m. in the large downstairs room of the 70 N. Central ave. library. Those attending are asked to bring an extra ornament along to help trim the tree. Library staffers will be dressed up as Charlie Brown characters that evening and Snoopy will be putting in a special appearance. The feisty pooch was reportedly working hard this week to turn out a large batch of bone-shaped goodies for party goers. For more information about the event call 378-8122.

Lewis accepts new job Jan. 1

Engineering Manager Frank Lewis may soon be on the other side of the podium at City Hall.

Last week Lewis, a 15 year city employee, announced he's resigning Dec. 31 to accept a partnership in an engineering firm to be based in Campbell.

The public works manager joined the city in February of 1961 as an engineering aide.

Over the years he's worked on many projects that changed the face of Campbell, including the widening and improvement of Winchester road (now boulevard), Campbell ave., Bascom and Hamilton avenues, the construction of John D. Morgan park and most recently the loop street project.

Lewis is joining the firm of Rapattoni and Associates, based in Santa Cruz, and will head their new Campbell office at 2200 Winchester Blvd.

The manager, who heads the design and construction division of public works, lives in theAlmaden valley.

He and his wife Heather are the parents of two sons, age 14 and 15.

Cable increase before council Monday

A request for a $2 monthly rate increase by Gill Cagle TV comes before Campbell city councilmen this Monday, Dec. 13. Sessions start at 8 p.m. in the City Hall council chamber, 75 N. Central ave.

According to City Manager Bob Stephens the Council has already received several letters protesting the request.

The cable television company serves the Campbell, San Jose and unincorporated county areas. San Jose was scheduled to hear the matter earlier this week.

Although Campbell does not have to go along with any decision made by San Jose, Stephens says the usual practice is that all three jurisdictions agree on rate increases.

Also on the agenda Monday night is

- A zone change commercial to neighborhood commercial for property at 1595 S. Winchester blvd. (at the northwest corner of Hamilton and Winchester).
- A request to change the zoning of eight parcels along Hamilton ave. from professional office to commercial. The land, on the north side of the street, includes the land from 137 to 301 Hamilton ave.
- A recommendation that the city lease of Briner Hall for the Senior Citizen Nutrition Program be extended through June 1977. The present lease, at $460 monthly, expires Dec. 31.
- A zone change request to locate 105 units of senior citizen housing at 250 Budd avenue.

Babysitting seminar

Local grads received diplomas

Monday night 38 local youngsters received their diplomas through the 17th Baby Sitter's Seminar, sponsored by the Campbell Fire Department.

The youths received training in child care, first aid, food preparation and what to do in emergencies.

Half of the new graduates live in Campbell, close to half in San Jose and two students each came from Saratoga and Los Gatos for the course.

Receiving diplomas were:

Tami Bergstrom, Jackie Berry, Ruth Butler, Lisa Carrier, Laura and Lisa Cesena, Carol Channell, Cindy Cochran, Sue Carona.

Kim Eller, Maryhelen Franzen, Mary Hawkins, Shannon Hixon, Nicola Hopkins, Kerry Jeadon, Stacey Jueal, Geri Kahn, Charlene Kline, Elaine and Kirsten LaPointe.

Debbie Leach, Mary McCarthy, Julie Neal, Patrice Ray, Christine Reierson, Cheryl Renouf, Sannon Rose, Laurie Sayen, Karen Schwender and Beverly Sheldon.

And Amy and Beth Speckman, Michelle Spicher, Janelle Steele, Anna Strick, Alicia Upton, Mary Anderson and Karen Snider.

Truman had the firmest handshake

Medal of honor holder is off on another jaunt

By PAT SAFFORD

ED BENNETT of Campbell belongs to the most exclusive group in the country. And its benefits include free flights overseas on military planes (on a space available basis), conventions every two years and invitations to the inauguration of every new U.S. President.

The 56 year old local man is one of 290 living recipients of the Congressional Medal of Honor; the only one in Santa Clara county. And Tuesday Bennett was in Los Angeles to attend the annual Patriot's Award Dinner, this year honoring Bob Hope for his 35 years of service in entertaining U.S. armed forces around the world.

Ed, and his wife Thelma, have lived on Marilyn drive for the past 14 years. Ever since he discovered the then-orchard town while stationed at Fort Ord.

A RETIRED U.S. Army Commander is now employed by a Sunnyvale electronics firm and likes to spend his leisure time playing golf or working jigsaw puzzles.

But the Bennett's quiet home life is interrupted every four years or so by an invitation to attend inaugural festivities for the nation's new elected leader.

Last week in their neat, attractive home the couple recalled some of those events.

Like Nixon's Inaugural Ball at the Hilton Hotel in Washington, D.C. Thelma always buys her gowns at a local department store and found that several women at that stellar event had the same tastes. "She found three gowns at the ball just like hers, one in the same color," Ed laughed.

OVER THE years the Bennett's have met all of the U.S. Presidents starting with Harry Truman, who presented the local man with the nation's highest military award. Ed says Truman had the best handshake (firmest) and Thelma says Lyndon Johnson's was the worst (very limp).

John Kennedy had a remarkable memory, Ed recalls. At one White House reception for Medal of Honor holders the young President was "briefed" earlier on a few details about each of the dozens of men he would meet. Later, in the garden, Kennedy came up to Bennett to ask how he'd been feeling (Bennett had had a heart attack earlier which caused his early disability retirement from the Army).

THE LOCAL couple remembers the Eisenhower Inaugural Ball as the most spectacular, with top entertainers performing continuously during the 5 hour affair.

Ed and Thelma are both natives of Ohio, he from a town of 900 called Middleport, and the biggest impact on his life from the medal has been being thrown into large crowds. A sort of instant socialization on a grand scale.

He remembers shaking from head to toe when he had to march before President Truman to receive the Congressional Medal.

"I was more scared to see Truman," Ed explained, "I'd have rather been back in combat."

HIS OFFICIAL citation explains the reason Ed holds the top honor:

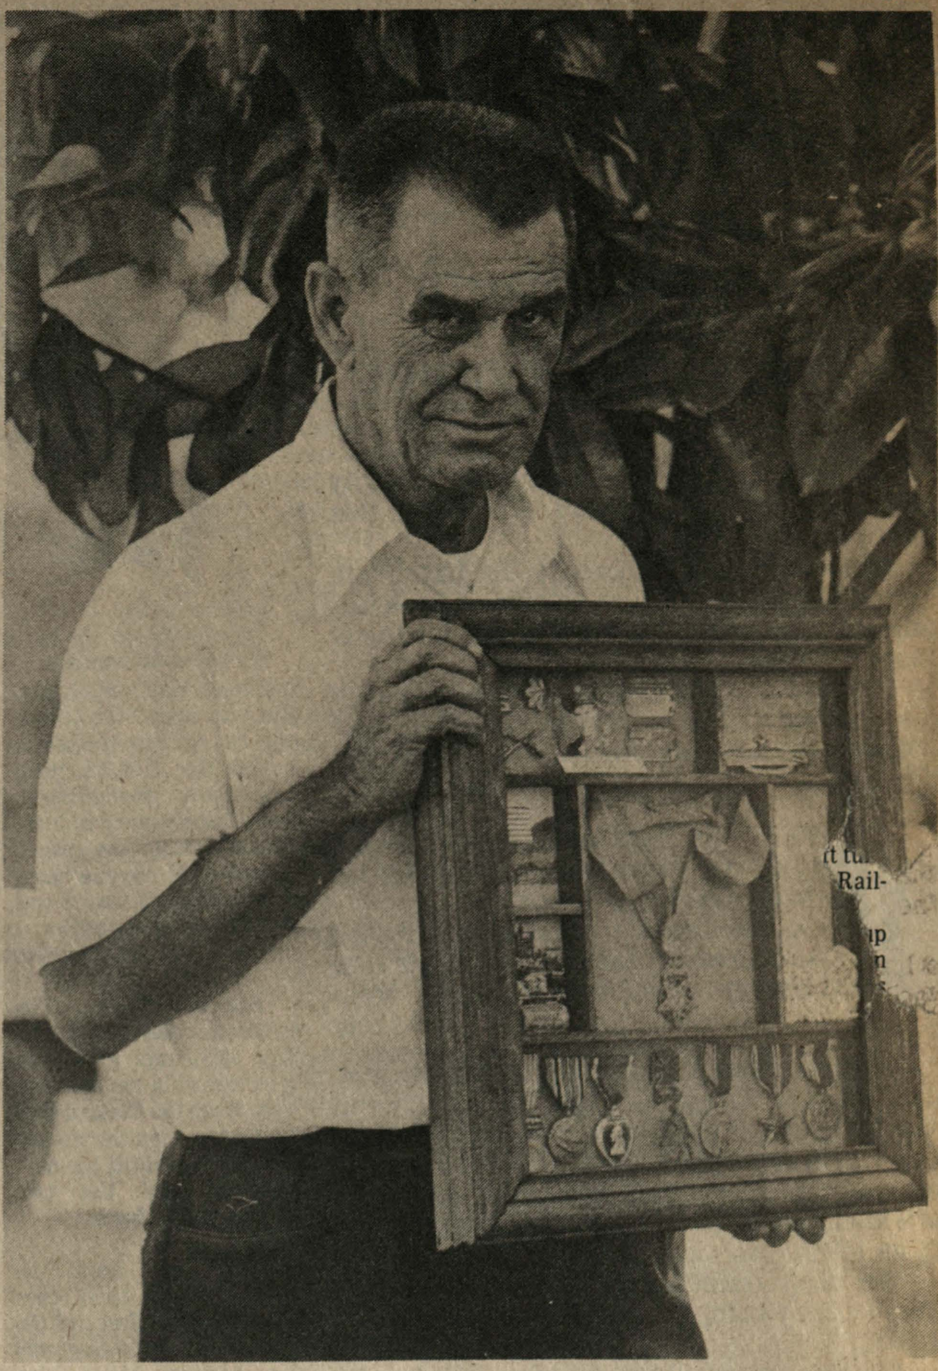
> "Private First Class Edward S. Bennett was advancing with Company B, 358th Infantry, across open ground to assault Heckhuscheid, Germany, just after dark on Feb. 1, 1945, when vicious enemy machinegun fire from a house on the outskirts of the town pinned down the group and caused several casualties. He began crawling to the edge of the field in an effort to flank the house, persisting in this maneuver even when the hostile machinegunners located him by the light of burning buildings and attempted to cut him down as he made for the protection of some trees. Reaching safety, he stelthily made his way by a circuitous route to the rear of the building occupied by German gunners. With his trench knife he killed a sentry on guard there and then charged into the darkened house. In a furious hand-to-hand struggle he stormed about a single room which harbored seven Germans. Three he killed with rifle fire, another he clubbed to death with the butt of his gun and the three others he dispatched with his .45 caliber pistol. The fearless initiative, stalwart compat ability and outstanding gallantry of Private Bennett eliminated the enemy fire which was decimating his company's ranks and made it possible for the Americans to sweep all resistance from the town."

ED'S WIFE Thelma objects to the wording on the citation. "It makes him sound ferocious," she declared, "and he's not."

And one of the couple's four daughters, now grown, had the same feeling. A copy of the citation use to hang in the living room of the Bennett home until the teenager objected.

"She asked me to take it out of the living room," Thelma explained,"

When one of her dates would call for her they'd read the citation and ask the girl, 'What time does your father want you home?"



CAMPBELL'S Ed Bennett belongs to the Congressional Medal of Honor Society, which boasts a total membership of 290. Since Civil War days a total of 3,395 Congressional Medals have been awarded, most posthumously. This week Bennett, shown with some of the collection of medals he earned during his combat days which included three wars or conflicts, was in Los Angeles to attend a special awards dinner honoring comedian Bob Hope. Every two years Bennett attends conventions of the honor society and in 1977 he won't have to travel far. It's being held in San Jose.

Vierhus reappointed to the planning commission

George Vierhus was appointed to the Campbell Planning Commission Thursday night. And it was his second appointment to that post in two months.

Earlier, the City Council used secret ballots in his appointment, along with other city commissioners, but that action was recently declared illegal by the state attorney general's office.

Councilman Rusty Hammer asked Thursday night that the action to reappoint Vierhus, Civic Improvement Commissioner Lillian Moore and six youth commissioners be delayed until officials could contact the City Attorney.

But time was of the essence for Vierhus since the Planning Commission was meeting that same night, downstairs, and several important matters were to be voted on.

Other officials decided to reappoint Vierhus immediately and wait to take action on the other appointees until City Attorney J. Robert Dempster returns for the Dec. 13 meeting.

The vote was 4-1 for the appointment, with Hammer casting the single "no" vote. He explained he had two reasons for that vote. First, he felt the council needed a legal opinion before proceeding and second, "My vote is based on the candidates for office."

Earlier Hammer commented that he felt the Council might have to redo the entire appointment process (including accepting applications and interviewing) to set things right with state law.

But the city may not have to reappoint the six youth commissioners.

According to the Attorney General's opinion, only those appointees interviewed in public session have to be voted on publicly. And the youth commissioners were interviewed and recommended by a screening committee which included just two city councilmen.

Council eyes the July 4th program

To have or not to have a Fourth of July celebration in Campbell next year will be decided by city councilmen at their meeting Monday night.

For the past three years the day-long celebration, featuring aerial fireworks, games and entertainment has been under the direction of advisory groups; including the parks and recreation and civic improvement commissions. But there had been no official direction from the Council.

Funds have already been budgeted for the fireworks for 1977 but the issue of whether the city will have the celebration and who'll be in charge is still to be decided.

The community-wide gathering began when John D. Morgan Park was dedicated in 1973 and was such a success it has been continued since then.

Cable subscribers deserve real choice

Gill Cable TV is coming before local officials soon with a request for a $2 monthly rate increase for subscribers; the second this year.

Prior to the latest increase the basic rate was $6.95 monthly (for one television hook up) and that was boosted to $8.95 to pay for the G movie channel.

The new proposal would have all subscribers paying $10.95 for service, regardless of whether or not they wished the G channel offerings.

And this is our main reason for opposing that increase. All subscribers are paying for the additional service.

The San Jose-based firm recently released a list of comparative rates showing their new monthly charge would be the lowest from among 14 cable companies in the Bay Area.

What they did not explain however, was that all of these subscribers are offered the movie channel as an option and pay an additional $7 to $12.95 monthly for it. Excluding the movie channel charges Gill's rates, now $6.95 are about average. Basic charges range from $5.45 to $8.25 in other areas.

We don't question Gill's contention that they've been losing money for the past several years.

We do question their use of a "package" rate for all subscribers rather than giving users a choice.

Let's keep July 4th celebration at home

A decision on whether or not to continue the city's Fourth of July celebration comes before city officials Monday. Also to be decided, if they choose to continue it, is who should be in charge.

First, we feel the day-long event attended by thousands of local residents is of great value to the City in fostering a sense of community.

Many different groups and individuals have worked together the past three years to make the celebration at John D. Morgan park a successful and enjoyable event.

And we also feel its important that the leadership in planning the event remain within the city family, as it has in past years.

While dozens of community people are needed to plan and direct the celebration, the key to success in past years has been the close contact and cooperation between various city departments including police, fire, community services and public works. We agree with the practice of rotating the chairmanship of the project as has been done in the past, but feel the task would best be left in the hands of one of the city commissions; most logically the Civic Improvement or Parks and Recreation.

PRESS arena

We Hear You

last week was very funny. But, you know, the people who lost out with the secret ballots (for the Planning Commission appointment) were the two who didn't get called back for the second interview. If anyone has a gripe about the way it was handled its those people.

An Observor

Editor's note: The caller is referring to the four applicants who were interviewed in the first session. When the Council split 2-2 for two men the matter was postponed till the next meeting and the two finalists called back.

That story about the people getting their cars towed away in front of the unemployment office was the nastiest thing I've heard of in ages. It's bad enough to get your car towed, and without knowing why too, but those people can afford it least.

Angry Caller

If there wasn't proper signs to let those people know their cars would be towed, it sounds illegal to me. What I want to know is what can they do about it?

Wants an Answer

Editor's note: There's no way to not pay to reclaim a car that's already been towed, but a person who feels it was done without proper notice can take the matter to small claims court and, if successful, recover the charges plus the nominal filing fees. By the way, that area (adjacent to, not in front of the unemployment office on Bascom) was to have been corrected last week but a quick check Friday showed no change. We'll check again this week.

There's something I've been reading about in the CAMPBELL PRESS that I'm most angry about. And that's the damage to John D. Morgan Park. To me and to hundreds of others in Campbell, John Morgan is a special person and we're proud of the park that bears his name. You'd think those little hoodlums (doing the damage) would be happy to have a park to use. To them I'd just like to say . . . Think about (former police chief) John Morgan and what he has done for the youth of this community.

Impressions

ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER

Last week while battling traffic to get a picture of a city staffer surveying Campbell ave., we were discussing the problem of motorists going the wrong way on westbound Campbell ave.

Just then a late model sedan came zipping up the street . . . going the wrong way. And when we shouted to warn him he attempted to make a right turn onto Railway (another one-way street) to get away from on-coming traffic.

The man eventually got turned around in the right direction by making a U-turn in the middle of Railway ave., as other motorists slammed on their brakes and sounded their horns.

And in the next hour, four more cars did the same wrong way routine.

Perhaps the "No Left Turn" signs should be mounted atop the traffic signal at Central ave. Too many people are stop-and-go drivers who just wait for the green light and then go . . . in the wrong direction.

SUNDAY IS A REAL BELL RINGER

You won't find it on most calendars, but this Sunday is a holiday. It's National Ding-a-Ling Day, a special event for the 600 members of the Ding-a-Ling Club.

The group was founded five years ago to promote the idea that a ding-a-ling is a wonderful, loving, intelligent, friendly, most desirable kind of person to know . . . "a real bell ringer."

And most of us know at least one.

So take your favorite ding-a-ling out this Sunday to celebrate his or her special day.

CAMPBELL'S ON THE MAP

Our local resources have been discovered on a national level. And our export isn't prunes anymore. It's people.

In the last week four locals have received special honors and appointments.

First, Jan Brown was appointed to the White House Conference on Handicapped Individuals planning and advisory council.

Dan Campos is the newest member of the Justice Department's Hispanic Advisory Committee on Immigration and Naturalization.

Ed Bennett, the only holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor in the county, flew off to southern California for a special event this week.

And finally, but not least, poet Ed Falkowski was appointed Chancellor of the World Poetry Society.

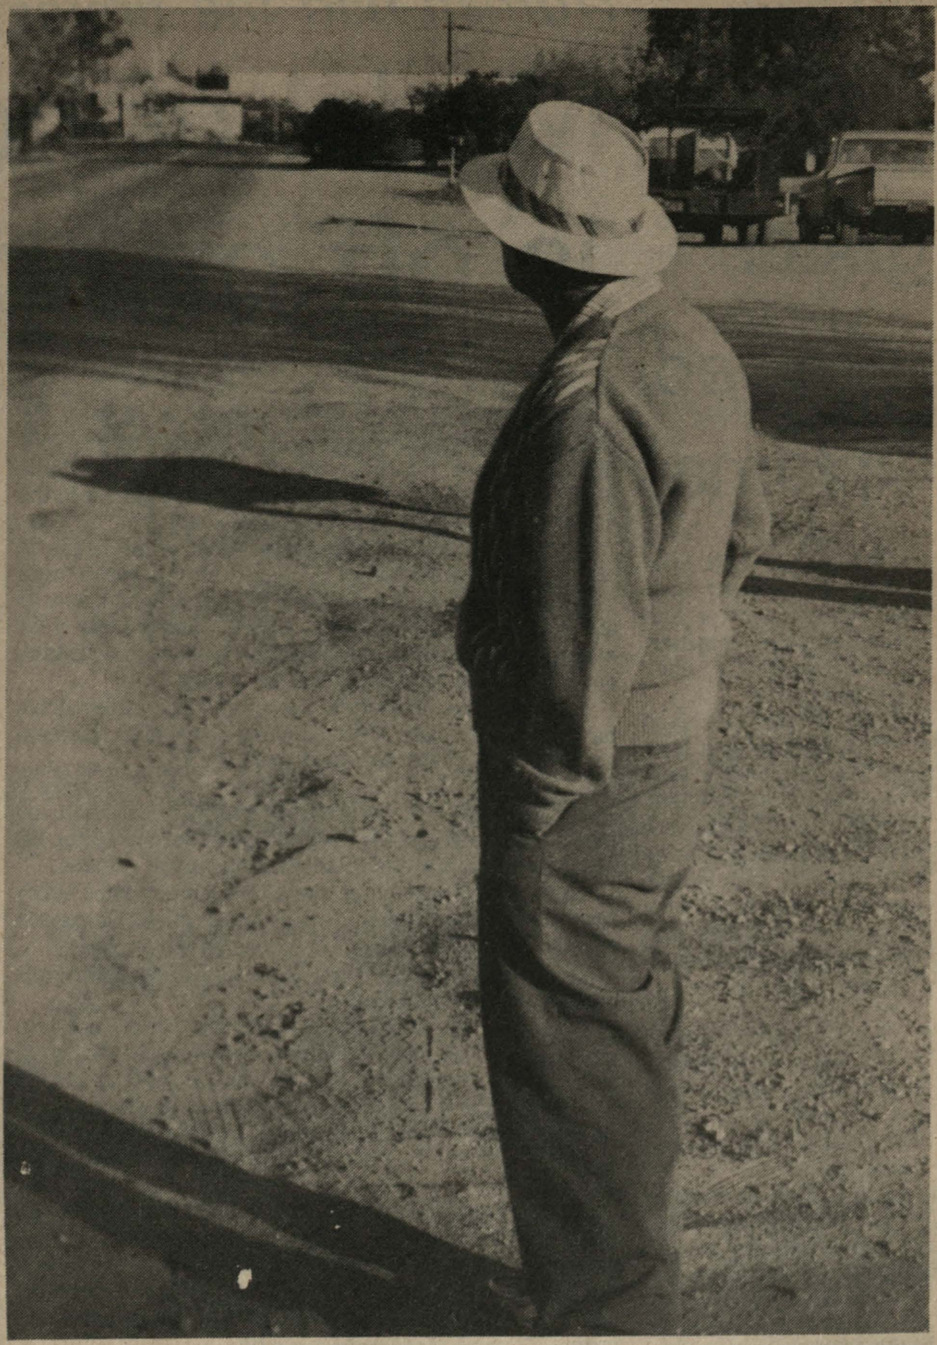
IF YOU MISSED THE "TIMES" . . .

Last week the PRESS received a big bundle of NEW YORK TIMES mistakenly sent to our post office box. Under the "Camello News" label we found the Campbell library address and took the stack over there.

We should have looked further.

Under the original label we later found copies for Campbell high school, attorney Ralph Steinberg and a Mr. Warren.

So, if these subscribers got their Nov. 21 issue about 4 days late you'll know why.



LLOYD CAVALLARO, one of close to 300 residents of the Timber Cove mobile home park, shows the long stretch of unimproved Old Camden road. During the rainy season the dirt frontage will turn into a sea of mud causing elderly residents to share the street with cars and trucks.

No street lights or sidewalks

Timber Cove residents have an axe to grind

RESIDENTS of a mobile home park in Campbell turned out in force Thursday night to tell city officials how they feel about street conditions along Old Camden road.

As one declared, "You're ashamed to invite your friends to Timber Cove. It looks like a slum."

But the man wasn't referring to the attractive home park. The bone of contention among residents was with the lack of sidewalks and street lights in that industrial area and with the junked cars and other refuse on nearby properties.

"WE WANT something done," declared Jim Mack, speaking for the contingent. "The one big item is sidewalks and if we can't have sidewalks how about a piece of asphalt (for pedestrians to use instead of the dirt shoulder?"

Councilman Rusty Hammer had an explanation for disgruntled residents, most of them senior citizens. "About two-and-one half or three years ago the city had scheduled a local improvement district (LID) along Old Camden avenue (and the city plunked down $10,000 for the plans). The property you live on changed hands and the new owners were not willing to participate," Hammer said. And the opposition of the new Timber Cove owners was the swing vote that let the LID fail for lack of a majority (of land owners).

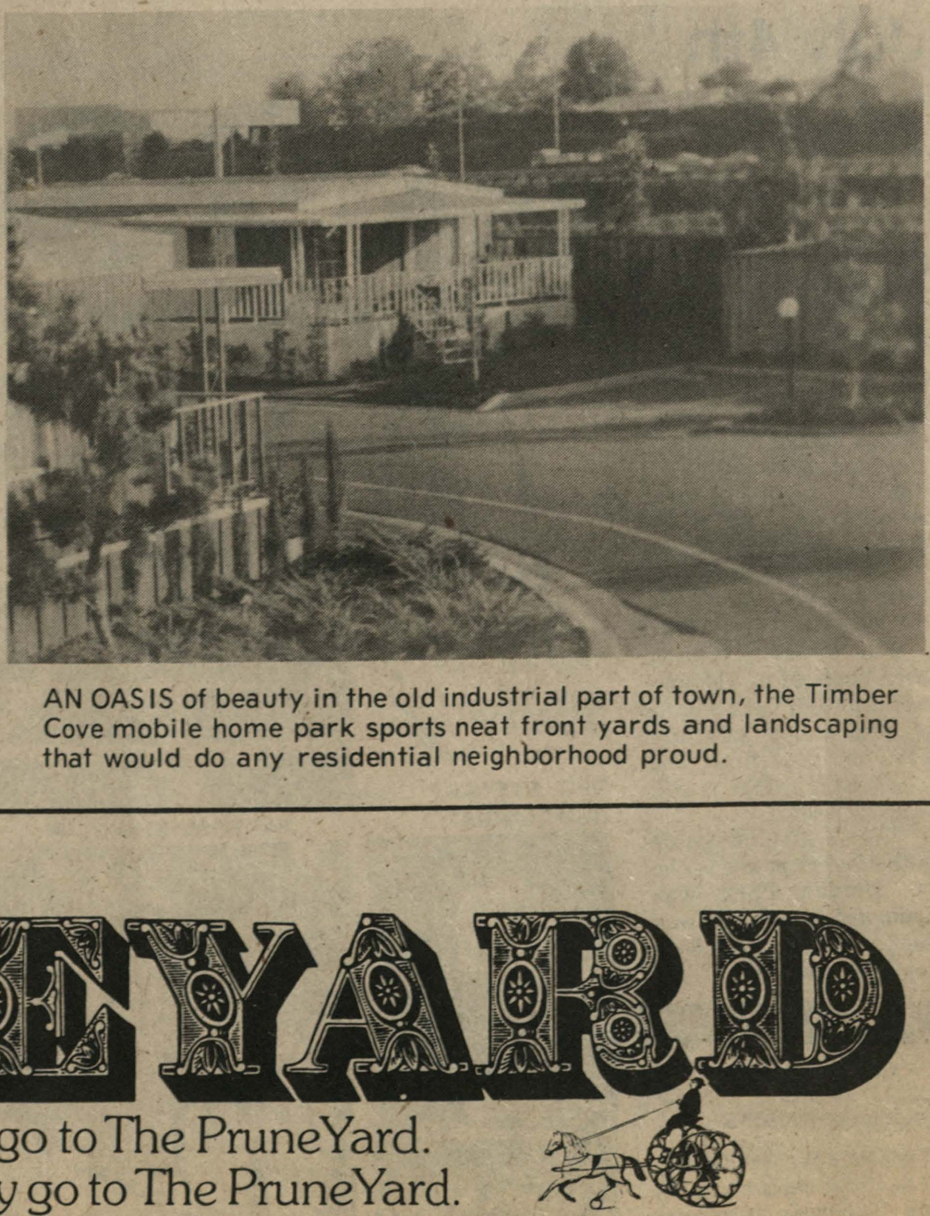
"What can we do?" Mack wanted to know.

"TALK TO the property owner," suggested Vice Mayor Bill Podgorsek.

And while residents get a meeting set up with the Timber Cove owners, the city has a few plans too.

Mayor Ralph Doetsch asked the public works department to look into costs of laying a strip of asphalt long the dirt siding, as a temporary measure, and to meet with representatives of the mobile home park to look into resurrecting the local improvement district.

ONE OF the concerns expressed by elderly residents of the mobile home park on Camden was over the old wrecked cars parked near their entrance.



AN OASIS of beauty in the old industrial part of town, the Timber Cove mobile home park sports neat front yards and landscaping that would do any residential neighborhood proud.

Alarm bells sound on Hamilton ave. plan

EDITOR:

A group of us have recently become aware of the Ainsley Corporation's plan to develop the 83 acres bordered by Bascom, Leigh, Hamilton and Los Gatos Creek. It started alarm bells ringing in our minds as we read what their plans are: a Ralph's Supermarket, a Gold Circle department store, commercial office space and high density apartments.

There have been several supermarkets that have gone out of business in the area. There is an abundance of empty office space available and neither Newberry's nor Grants could make it in the vicinity. So why does Ainsley Corp. (Genstar Limited of Canada is the parent company) figure they can make it where others have failed?

The owners of the property can profitably develop the area for single family dwelling or sell the land to be developed into a regional park.

Every morning and evening Hamilton avenue is a disaster of traffic congestion so we shudder at the prospect of what will be if the plans are realized. Why the push to put in something that will be mediocre from the start and cause a monumental traffic problem for San Jose and Campbell?

The Environmental Impact Report has not yet been approved by the San Jose Planning Commission. There will be a meeting held on the evening of Dec. 15 at the San Jose City Hall to determine if this monstrosity will be allowed to go further. We urge the people of this community to attend that meeting and support a group of homeowners who are opposing this farce. Help keep this area from becoming an inner-city problem.

It has been traditionally difficult to motivate people without a financial axe to grind: Maybe the prospect of suburban housing being surrounded by commercial development will be ugly enough to have citizens rally in protest.

Pat Dimock,
Hamilton Area
Improvement Association

Editor's Note: One statement made in this letter should be corrected. According to General Manager Dick Hardy, the Ainsley Corporation is NOT connected with Genstar, Ltd. Ainsley, a family owned corporation, owns the land. Genstar is the parent company of Sutter-Hill, the developers and the tennant of the commercial development is Federated Department Stores. The project is a cooperative venture between the three.

'Frustrated Fan' speaks back

Editor's note: This letter is in answer to a rebuttal by a local football coach over criticism that local youth did well in sports programs until they reached the Campbell high school varsity football level. The coach declared that the writer of the letter was a frustrated ex-athlete who had caused trouble at the school repeatedly.

FRUSTATED FAN
EDITOR:

The response the coach gave to the article I wrote on the Campbell high school football program was not what I had hoped it would be. It appears someone had already contacted the coach directly and they were falsely charged with having written my letter.

The observation I made regarding our apparent inability to produce winning teams through the varsity program was made from a distance. My job only permits me to see the game on Thanksgiving Day.

I honestly expected some sort of general meeting might be called to discuss the issue and inform persons like me on how the school administers its athletic programs. From such a meeting we could learn what problems exist, and if interested members of the community could help in resolving these problems.

I feel this opinion is shared by others, but they also do not speak out as individuals for fear of sanctions to their sons. (This fear does not appear to be unwarranted!!)

Please allow us this privilege and have faith in our offer of support.

Frustrated Fan

Greetings from the monster man

EDITOR:

The Milpitas Monster would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your interest in our project. I'm sure you're one of the people who believe ours is a story that should be told. More than a movie, it's the community involvement.

Thank you for forwarding the newspaper clips, they'll be used in the writing of my book, "The Making of the Milpitas Monster, A guide to Making Low Budget Feature Films at the Community Level." The book is under full production with the first editions scheduled for next spring.

I'm especially interested in talking with you on the idea of more Monster challenges for other cities. I congratulate you on your idea, the potentials are infinite!

I've just about completed the packaging of our film. I hope to have it ready for the market in December. Who knows, it may follow well behind Universal's "King Kong."

Robert L. Burrill

P.S. I will be teaching a class for teachers and interested film makers next spring at San Jose state university. "Feature Films at the Community Level," Wednesday nights from 7 to 9:45 p.m. It's a two unit course with 10 meetings.

A letter from a dream analyst

EDITOR:

Thank you for the recent article about me. It was a pleasure to talk with you — you are easy to talk with. Your story came across quite well, I thought.

Would you also please express my appreciation to your fine photographer? His expertise is reflected in his excellent work.

Hope your holidays are beautiful and will be filled with happy memories.

You are doing a good job for the PRESS and for the city of Campbell. I, for one, appreciate it.

B. Woods Mattingley

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR are welcomed. Please keep them brief and preferably printed or typed. Named will be withheld on request but all letters must be signed. Crews at work on adjustments

There's still a few knots in the loop

Campbell's two new one-way streets through the heart of town have been operating almost six weeks now, but there's still a few bugs to be worked out.

Like more signing, island extensions and pavement markings to keep motorists on the right track.

According to Engineering Manager Bill Helms the biggest surprise to his department has been with the amount of confusion among motorists over one-way Campbell ave. between Harrison and N. Third st.; particularly at the Central ave. intersection. Almost hourly motorists can be seen heading the wrong way on that busy street.

The biggest problem though, and the most dangerous, Helms says, is with westbound traffic on Campbell ave. attempting to make a left turn from the far right lane.

"I guess people have been used to making that turn from the right lane and they've just kept doing it," the public works manager explained.

CALLS have been coming into the city department over the new street arrangements and most have been favorable, Helms says.

"Most callers tell us they're pleased because there's less congestion and less delay," he commented.

But there have been some critical comments too. Like those from merchants with businesses on Campbell ave. between Second st. and Central ave.

At a recent City Council session three business owners appeared to complain about a sharp drop in customers since the north loop street (Orchard City drive) opened and Campbell ave. was switched to one-way. One woman contends her business has dropped as much as 75 per cent.

AND those owners aren't so happy with the speedy process of cars along Campbell ave.

"Traffic is whizzing by so fast," one said, "no one has a chance to stop."

Helms said last week he feels there is a solution to the plight of merchants.

The opening of the north loop (probably next fall) and the downtown off-street parking district will give businesses a big boost, Helms feels. The engineer's report on the parking district is expected later this month.

And in the meantime city crews are going full steam ahead with modifications to the new one-way streets.

THIS week they'll be installing signs on Orchard City drive to direct motorists to City Hall and the library.

And they're working on a solution to the problem of motorists in the left hand lane of Orchard City drive being forced into a left turn onto Campbell at the Railway intersection.

"Well be putting up "Left Turn Only" signs on that inside lane," Helms said.

PEERING through the theodolite last week was Mike Lesar, a member of the city survey crew. Public works staffers are busy, since the new loop street opened and Campbell went one-way, making modifications in street markings. The entire process is expected to take several months.

Mediator sought

Talks break down in the Campbell district

NEGOTIATIONS between the school board and teacher's association have reached a standstill in the Campbell elementary school district and an outside mediator will be called in.

Last Friday the Campbell Elementary Teacher's Association (CETA) officially informed district officials of an impasse in talks which have gone on in the district for the past six months.

Main issues in the stalemate are salary (the district is offering 4 per cent while the teachers seek 10.5 per cent), binding arbitration and agency shop.

Under the new Collective Bargaining Act, administered by the Education Employment Relations Board (EERB) a mediator is expected to be appointed later this week.

The task of the mediator is to try and bring both sides together and, failing that, fact finding may be recommended by the EERB staffer.

THIS WEEK teachers in several local schools have been passing out leaflets explaining their position and more will be mailed out to parents next week.

An important issue in the dispute is CETA's request for binding arbitration. Under this provision any differences between the two sides would be decided by an outside third party.

The Board has agreed to advisory arbitration to resolve differences but draws the line at the "binding" priviso.

"The Board of Trustees reserves the option of setting the educational priorities and policies for the District," Superintendent Jim D'Avis said last week. "The Board feels that it should not delegate the responsibility for such decisions to an outside arbitrator."

CETA PRESIDENT Phil Short disagrees with that view. "Binding arbitration is a two-edged sword that requires teachers as well as administration to come to agreement," he said, "and will certainly save many man-hours of fruitless negotiations."

Another issue is agency shop. If agreed to it would require all non-CETA members to pay a fee (usually equal to dues) for negotiating services provided by the teacher organization. The Board is opposed to this.

Monday both sides were saying they're anxious to reach an agreement.

But Short described the feeling among local teachers.

"Educators in Campbell are not happy," he said.

"CAMPBELL has had two very quiet years. (Since the teacher strike). The association (CETA) has gone out of its way to keep things quiet (and reasonable). Now we're asking the Board to go a little out of its way too."

Find out about the P's and Q's of West Valley college tonight

If you want to find out about how much money West Valley College spends and for what, an informal public meeting is scheduled to answer these questions tonight, Dec. 9 in the Campbell Union High School District board room.

College staffers will discuss district financing and budget procedures at the 7:30 p.m. meeting.

The district office is located at 3235 Union ave., San Jose.

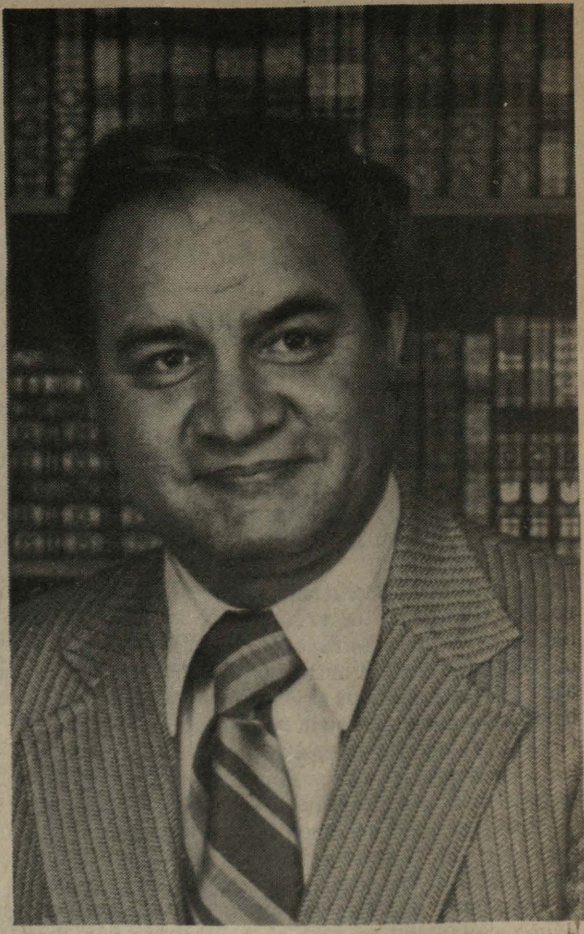
Off to D.C.

Campos named to national committee



DANIEL CAMPOS

NEXT WEEK Campbell's Daniel Campos will be flying off to Washington, D.C. to assume his duties as a member of a new committee appointed by Leonard Chapman, commissioner of the immigration and naturalization service.

Last month Campos received word he'd been selected for the 21-member committee out of 300 names submitted to Chapman.

As a member of the Hispanic Advisory Committee on Immigration and Naturalization, the local man will attend that group's first conference in Washington Dec. 16.

DUTIES OF the committee, recently chartered by the U.S. Congress, will be to look into the treatment and handling of Hispanic (Spanish speaking) immigration service workers as well as illegal aliens.

More specifically the committee, which will meet every three months, will look into the training and instructional materials used in the immigration service, recuriting practices, treatment of illegal aliens and legislation affecting Spanish speaking persons.

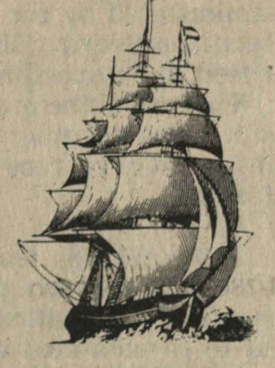
Campos, a member of the Campbell Planning Commission, is the Affirmative Action Officer for the city of San Jose.

HE IS THE former national chairman of the American G.I. Forum, former national chairman of the Board of S.E.R. (Service, Employment and Redevelopment) a member of the Economic Opportunity Commission (the old war on poverty board) and former chairman and charter member of the board of Mexican American Community Services Agency (M.A.C.S.A.).

CAMPOS AND his wife Anita live at 819 Chapman drive and are the parents of two children, both university students.

The local man's appointment, and the committee's term, is for one year as set down by Congress. The term may be extended.

Stormy seas ahead for boat dealer



ACCORDING to city officials, at least 10 boats now on display at a local boat sales company will have to weigh anchor in the next 30 days. Planning staff says the firm is in violation of their city permit.

There may be some rough sailing ahead for the owners of Campbell Marine at 1600 S. Winchester blvd. At issue is the number of boats that company has on display.

According to the site approval granted by the city in 1972, the owners agreed to have a maximum of three boats on display outside and to provide 14 on site parking spaces.

But the number of boats has increased, and parking spaces decreased, over the past few months until a recent staff report showed there were "only about two parking spaces available."

On Nov. 24 a letter went out to the owners asking them to comply with the three boat limit and giving them 30 days to act.

Fund raiser at Coventry this Saturday

Jeremy Silva is 32 months old, has cerebral palsy and a hearing loss and needs a specially built stroller/wheelchair. So his friends at Project IDEA decided to do something about it.

This Saturday, Dec. 11 a special fund-raising fair will be held at Coventry School, 1125 W. Campbell ave., beginning at 10 a.m.

Proceeds will go for the benefit of hearing impaired children with a special fund raiser for Jeremy.

The benefit is being sponsored by the parent's association of Project Infant Deafness Educational Assistance administered by the county superintendent of schools.

THERE'S a fund-raising fair for little Jeremy Silva at Coventry School this Saturday.

Carpet Cleaning Facts You Should Know

1. THERE IS ONLY ONE SAFE WAY TO CLEAN CARPETS
(Thoroughly and without using damaging amounts of liquid that could harm your carpets as well as your floors.)
2. IT'S CERTAINLY NOT THE SO CALLED "STEAM" METHOD
(Actually the "steam" is nothing but water – gallons of it.)
3. IT'S NOT THE "ROTARY" BRUSH METHOD
(This method cleans the surface, but the deep down dirt remains untouched.)
4. IT'S NOT THE "HAND" APPLICATION METHOD
(This method also brightens the surface but doesn't remove the deep dirt.)

THEN WHAT IS IT?
IT'S THE VON SCHRADER CARPET DETERGER METHOD
(This method uses dry foam shampooed down to the base of your carpet by a cylindrical brush and vacuumed immediately in one operation.) "Patented and proven."
With this method there is no danger of dry-rot, browning, mildew, or harm to the floors.
Protect your carpeting and your floors by calling for a FREE ESTIMATE. Let us revive their exquisite beauty. WE SPECIALIZE IN QUALITY SERVICE.

Face up to change, Virg

Dec. 11 through Dec. 11

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Your intellectual appetite is whetted. You hunger for truth to help solve personal puzzle. The road to truth is a zigzag road, dear Ari, but the only one worth traveling. Bon vonage!

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Travel plans highlighted. Unload emotional baggage that's no longer needed. Old dream takes on new meaning, Taurus, and love relationship builds. Week ends on key of G, for grasp, grasp and goody.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Race begins. You want to overtake lead horse? O.K., then hold reins tightly, keep your eyes on distant goal and your nose out of the grog. Mind Aunt Olga and you wind up in the winner's circle.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Closed door opens and reveals hidden treasure. Maybe not gold doubloons, you understand, but a treasure nevertheless. But let's face it, Moonbaby, itn't it about time?

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Better than average week ahead, Leo. Money matters improve. Personal plans dovetail, and . . . the one you love, loves back. Better than average? Holy Toledo! That may be the understatement of the decade.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Get your vace prepared for change, Virgo. Dialogue with member of another generation involved. You benefit. One with come-hither eyes enters picture. More or less your basic bombshell. Current situation takes on new dimension. Oh, yes!

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Old memory returns like a half-forgotten melody. One at a distance plays key role in personal drama. As unusually busy week grinds to a halt, Libra, you should get out of the cold and into a hot toddy. You're entitled.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Rather decent week ahead. Not that you necessarily deserve one, you understand, it's just that the old heavens simply work this way. Don't argue with the stars, Scorp. Enjoy, enjoy.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): First part of week hectic, but you manage to turn chaos to calm. It is your nature, Saj, to control your surroundings, rather than let surroundings control you. That's just dandy, Saj, so long as you don't play role of despot. Week ends with a sign.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Pressure builds. However, just when you think you've reached the end of your tether, Cap, the Cavalry arrives. You crash. Interminable week ends on key of F, for festoon, finicky and finesse.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Responsibility thrust upon you, Aquari, whether you like it or not. Since burden is inevitable, try to assume it with a modicum of grace. If quizzed about personal affairs (?) be foxy and keep mum concerning past blunder. You will understand.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Face up to secret fear, Pisces my pet. Recognition of problem is first step toward solving. Loved one has message to deliver. Stop flicking your Bic and pay attention!

FEATURED PERFORMERS at the Thursday, Dec. 16 Christmas luncheon of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce will be Mission Valley's Mini Chorus. The group's full chorus captured top spot in the Sweet Adelines, Inc. international competition this year. The luncheon begins at 11:30 a.m. at Villa Felice. Chairman is Jeanette Watson. For reservations call 378-6252.

Handmade Bible on display at local Assembly church

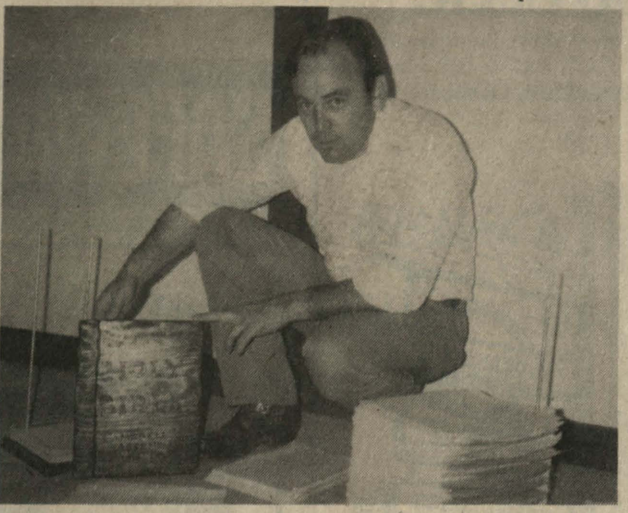
National Bible Day this Sunday, Dec. 12 will be observed in style at the Campbell Assembly of God church, 2275 Camden ave.

A handwritten copy of the Bible, a six months project which involved members and friends of the local church, will be on display at the morning worship services; 9:45 and 11 a.m. this Sunday.

Tom and Marilyn Hickox were in charge of the project and volunteers who helped ranged from six to 90 years. The Bible is bound with handmade, natural wood covers.

Also planned for Sunday is the church's "Christmas Musicale" at 6:30 p.m. that night.

The Rev. J. Kirk Soper will speak on "Mary Had a Little Lamb," at the evening service.



DISPLAYING the handwritten copy of the Bible on view at the Campbell Assembly of God church this Sunday is Tom Hickox.

TIE HIRAI is one of the students seeking a host family through the Youth for Understanding exchange program. The 16 year old Brazilian student speaks four languages, including English, and enjoys swimming, horseback riding, music and working with pottery.

Be a host to foreign students

Host families in the Campbell area are being sought for exchange students from South America who'll be spending six months in this country through the Youth for Understanding program.

All are between 15 and 18 years and speak English.

The exchange students are not guests in American homes, but become a member of the household, sharing responsibilities and activities.

Host families provide room and board while students provide their own spending money and health insurance.

Anyone interested in learning more about the program or becoming a host family can contact Connie Baumgartner at 378-2287. This Campbell woman has hosted four exchange students in her home in recent years.

Parks will speak on reincarnation

Phil Parks will talk on "Reincarnation" at the Sunday, Dec. 12 meeting of the Baha'i Faith of Campbell.

The meeting, open to the public, will be held at 7:30 p.m. at 528 Latimer Circle.

Parks, a pre-veterinary student at West Valley College, has done much research on the subject of reincarnation.

BULLETIN BOARD

BOAT & trailer, 12' wooden boat, great for fishing, $200. 379-0491.

LADY Schick hair dryer, consolette type with mist, like new, $20. 371-1329.

News Briefs

$500 TO SAN TOMAS

Last week the Campbell City Council voted to spend $500 in federal revenue sharing funds for the San Tomas school neighborhood. park program.

Last year the Council had authorized funds for this and other mini-parks but a formal role call vote was required before the money could be spent.

Originally the San Tomas PTA planned to spend the funds for benches and picnic tables for the park but those plans may be altered.

PARKING DISTRICT PLANS

A spot is being kept open on the Monday, Dec. 13 city council agenda in case the off-street parking district report comes througn.

Originally scheduled for a November hearing, the formal plans and specifications for the downtown parking district would allow the Council to put the project out to bid.

CITIZEN AWARD DEADLINE

Next Friday, Dec. 17 is the deadline for submitting nominations for this year's Citizen of the Year award to the Campbell Chamber of Commerce.

The award will be presented at the Jan. 28 annual Chamber banquet.

For information or nomination forms contact the Chamber at 378-6252.

SPECIAL DISPLAY

A special showing of art work by physically handicapped artists is on display this month at the Campbell public library.

Participants in the show attend weekly classes at the Adult Independence Development Center.

Also on display this month is handmade wooden and cloth toys and a selection of recommended books for holiday reading.

VIDEO TAPE AVAILABLE

Campbell now has a video tape copy of the 1976 Little League World Series, along with a cassette tape sound track, available for loan to local groups or individuals.

Persons borrowing either the video tape or sound track must provide their own equipment.

For more information contact Administrative Assistant Terry Ellis in the City Manager's office, 378-8141.

LOCAL FLU SHOT CLINICS

Community Hospital, Los Gatos-Saratoga will be offering a free swine flu immunization clinic this Saturday, Dec. 11 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The hospital is located at 815 Pollard rd.

COLLEGE FEES SET

Both out-of-state and foreign students will be paying the same $36 per unit fee, West Valley College trustees decided Thursday night. The rate takes effect in 1977. Formerly out-of-state students paid $33 per unit while foreign students were charged $22.

In the past state law allowed districts to charge foreign students less than out-of-state students.

SQUARE DANCE SET

An "Old West Valley Day" square dance is planned for Wednesday, Dec. 15 from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Saratoga campus center.

Sponsored by the associated student body, proceeds will be donated to the Ming Quong Children's Center.

Admissions is $1 and $2 and advance tickets are available by calling 867-1096.

Club notes

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA

The Gamma Omega chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma is planning its holiday luncheon on Saturday, Dec. 11 at 12:30 p.m. at the Black Kettle in The Factory.

Entertainment will be provided by the Madrigals of Monta Vista high school.

Hostesses will be Helen Carter, Blanche Penn, Daisy Webb, Pat Hughes, Elisabeth Girdler and Vivian Schember.

The group is an international honor society for women in education.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

A display of decorations around the world, film and smorgasbord lunch highlight the Thursday, Dec. 16 program of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Campbell.

"Christmas Customs" begins at noon in the fellowship hall at 400 W. Campbell ave. and child care will be provided.

A display of decorations used only at Christmas time from foreign lands is on tap along with the film, "Christmas Through The Ages."

CAMPBELL MOOSE

A crab feed is planned by Campbell Moose Lodge, 1811, this Saturday, Dec. 11 starting at 7:30 p.m. in the new lodge hall.

Musical entertainment will be provided by Billy Lawrence.

CAMPBELL GARDEN CLUB

Scholarship winner Holly Ann Wheeler was the special guest at the Dec. 8 meeting of the Campbell Garden Club.

District Director Mrs. William Morgan was also an honored guest at the group's annual Christmas Tea and Gift Exchange.

Holly, a Campbell high school graduate, was the winner of the club's $100 scholarship award for 1976.

UNITED METHODIST PARENTS PRE-SCHOOL

There's still an opening in the morning program of the Campbell United Methodist Parents Pre-School program held at 1675 Winchester blvd.

The class meets on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and is open to three and four year olds.

For more information call President Bev Keopke at 287-6922.

CLUB ESTRELLA

More Campbell members are being sought for Club Estrella, Joe Lopez of Jeffrey ave. announced last week.

The social club meets monthly at the IFES Hall in Mt. View.

Last month the group held an installation of officers including President Tony Pimental, Rosa Verdin, secretary; Jim Dominguez, treasurer; and Katie Salas, membership organizer.

Anyone interested in learning more about the club can call Katie at 244-2862.

NO COFFEE BREAK THIS DAY

A daring weekend burglar made off with $75.75 worth of coffee, non-dairy creamer and plastic filler cups from a local office building, according to police reports. The deed was discovered Monday morning when a real estate saleswoman, whose office is in the Lyman Building at 1610 La Pradera, took her mid-morning coffee break. The police were called immediately, but their ensuing investigation turned up no clues, except that the burglar obviously knew what he was after since several items of portable office equipment were left undisturbed.

The East-West Valley Insurance Agency, Inc., next door at 1620 La Pradera, fared worse the same weekend when a $100 stereo — possibly taken by a coffee drinking music lover — and $3 in currency was taken from their office. Police believe the two burglaries may be connected.

NOT SO SAFE AFTER ALL

The muscle-bound burglar who removed a 100-pound safe from Miller's Carpet Care Friday is in for a big disappointment when he finally breaks it open. According to police, the safe contains no money, only "receipts and miscellaneous paper work."

Owner of the small carpet cleaning business, located at 1600 Dell ave., reported that three carpet cleaning wands, valued at $95 each, were also taken. The 10-year-old metal safe is valued at $200. The detective bureau is investigating several clues left at the scene.

CITIZEN'S ARREST

A Campbell restaurant manager made a citizen's arrest Saturday evening after two San Jose men allegedly ordered a full meal, then left without paying after eating only their salads.

When confronted by the manager outside the restaurant, the two suspects said they were waiting to meet a friend, police report. They were taken into custody and cited by police for defrauding an innkeeper after refusing to pay the $9 dinner tab. "We didn't eat the whole meal," they explained.

DEADLY WEAPON ON WHEELS

After following two men noticed trespassing Saturday at the apartment complex he manages, a local man was assaulted by the suspects with a deadly weapon — their car.

According to police reports, the manager was about 50 feet behind the trespassers when he saw them get into their vehicle parked at The Pruneyard, make a wide turn and try to "run him down." The police are following up several leads to the assault.

Earlier that same day, The Pruneyard parking lot bore mute witness to a mass attack of malicious mischief when five vehicles were rendered temporarily inoperable by the removal of air from all their tires, according to police.

Two suspects were arrested by police after witnesses identified them as the mischief-makers. The 1 a.m. incident occurred outside a local bar where three of the car owners are employed. And where the suspects had gone after their alleged early morning spree. The case has been referred to the District Attorney's office for a complaint.

One-year contract to Humane Society

WHILE CONTINUING to explore feasibility of constructing a county-operated animal shelter, the Board of Supervisors last week approved a $230,000 one-year contract with the Santa Clara Valley Humane Society.

The contract requires the Humane Society to hold both stray cats and dogs for 72 hours before disposal. The society has been criticized in the past for destroying cats before owners were able to claim them.

The contract also stipulates that the Humane Society, located on Lafayette street in Santa Clara, will provide space for a vet, who will be hired by the county at an annual salary of $21,000.

The Humane Society is required to operate its euthanaire machine, which destroys animals by oxygen deprivation, in accordance with state law. Only one animal is allowed in a compartment, with the exception of a mother and litter.

Earlier this year, critics of the animal shelter obtained films which showed dozens of animals being unloaded from the euthanair machine. The films touched off a controversy which resulted in the formation of a citizen's task force to investigate the Humane Society.

The job of investigating for possible law violations in the treatment of animals was subsequently taken over by the County Grand Jury.

An Affair to Remember with BEA RENÉ

© Bea Rene 1975

CLEMENTINE'S will be closed Xmas Day & w/reserve all of their festivities for New Year's Eve. Mgr. Roger Shilling w/be serving a spec. dinner from 5-11 p.m. — w/dancing until 2 a.m. to "Airwaves," a very talented group! You'll be given all kinds of hats, horns & a surprise or two. Spending New Year's in this festive decor would certainly be "An Affair to Remember." Call for reservations now.

VIENNA GARDEN Restaurant will have a special Christmas program Thurs., Dec. 16 from 7-8 p.m. featuring the DOWLAND CONSORT. This 10-voice choir will perform a variety of Renaissance and Christmas songs. VIENNA GARDEN prefers not serving dinners during that hour; however, they invite you to enjoy beer, wine, coffee and other beverages. There will be no cover charge.

The lovely restaurant in Portola Valley — MALONEY'S — w/be serving to their usual fine dinner crowd thruout the month of Dec.; however, they'll be closed Christmas Day & New Year's Day but will be celebrating New Year's Eve, I'm sure, w/a vengeance. The fine continental dinners at MALONEY'S reflect a touch of Hawaiian in their preparation, since it was patterned after other restaurants that Terry Maloney & John McMannis own in the Islands.

It makes me feel good to read remarks like this one from a questionnaire answered by a diner at SIRLOIN AND BREW UNLIMITED in Saratoga: "Sharman (the waitress) was just great. This is our Silver Anniversary & she just made the evening. This is our 4th visit." Signed by a Santa Clara couple. I can assume that they also enjoyed plenty of champagne (which is incl w/dinner Mon., Tues., Wed.) to go w/the steak & unlimited wine, beer or sangria which are included. There's an S & B UNLIMITED in Fremont, Belmont, Jack London Square and S.F., too.

For a unique New Year's Eve, let me suggest GRANNY'S ATTIC on Almaden Exp. . . . They'll be having their usual "Big Bash" serving a Prime Rib dinner for 2 for only $11.95 per couple plus champagne — dinner w/be a late affair from 11 p.m.–1 a.m. The decor is so conducive to celebrants, you can't help but have a good time at this unique restaurant, w/its friendly personnel. Do call for reservations soon.

I truly enjoyed the great entertainment of "THE FIVE ECHOS" at the ECHO RESTAURANT in Los Altos . . . the very personable Greg Franks & John Felch performed to a very receptive audience & they really put out a lot of music. They play the "oldies but goodies" — they both have great singing voices. Stop by for an evening of enjoyment!

Slate of new officers elected for chamber

Jim Hardy was elected president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce last week and he'll assume office in January.

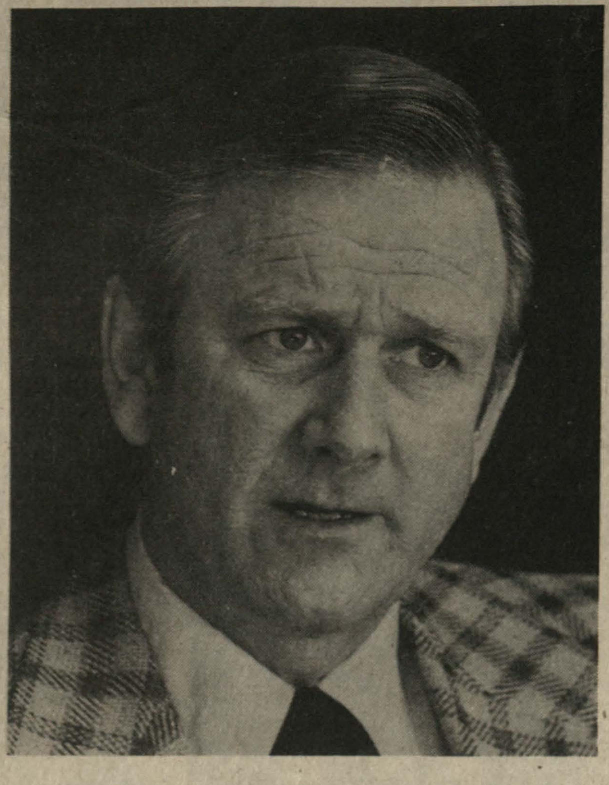
Other new officers and members of the Board of Directors are: Jeanette Watson, president-elect; Doug Mahre, treasurer and Jim Norris, immediate past president.

New vice presidents and their areas of concern are: Jerry Bartholow, public affairs; Mike Kotowski, economic development; Alvin Jackson, human resources and Doug Boyce, internal affiars.

Members of the Board of Directors will include: Alvin Jacoson, Larry Dodson, Chuck Gillmore, Margaret Scorpiniti and Jim West.

New officers will be installed at the annual Chamber banquet on Jan. 28 in Sunsweet Hall.

Those whose terms will be expiring are Pete Edwards, Holly Vollenweider, Doc Stander, Ed Fabbri and Ron Naymark.



PRESIDENT of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce for 1977 will be Jim Hardy, local businessman.

People

FIVE NEW LAWYERS

Five of those who recently passed the state bar exams are from Campbell.

This year close to 7,000 persons took the exams statewide and 4,000 passed successfully.

New local lawyers include: Steven Bowman, 810 Old Orchard rd., Robert Geffrey, 30 Circle drive; Patric Kelly, 1410 Inskip dr.; William Whittaker, 350 Budd ave.; and Derek Woodhouse, 1110 Steinway.

PAGEANT FINALIST

17 year-old Marianne Christian of Campbell high school is one of 20 finalists in the San Jose Junior Miss Pageant, sponsored by the Jaycees.

The final selection will be made this week.

HONOR STUDENTS

Three Campbell youths were listed on the honor roll of San Jose Christian School for the fall semester.

They include: Carey Greenwood, seventh grade; Holly Patapoff, tenth; and David Patapoff, eighth grade.

All earned a "B" average or better.

CAMPBELL'S Bell Savings Manager Phyllis Moore is off to San Mateo.

Over 150 local kids need jobs

There's a critical shortage of jobs for youth in the Campbell area and Maureen Morgan would like to do something about it.

Maureen is the Youth Employment Service Director for the Campbell Chamber of Commerce and is trying to match jobs with the over 200 local youth who have applied. So far only about 30 have been placed.

The Director emphasized that everything from short term jobs such as babysitting or yard work are needed, to longer hours for businesses needing helpers during the Christmas season.

Anyone with a job, or two or three, can call Maureen at 378-1666.

New manager for savings and loan

Rosemary Taorminuo has been appointed the new manager of the Bell Savings and Loan Association office in Campbell, it was announced last week.

She replaces Phyllis Moore who has recently transferred to the firm's San Mateo office to take over the post of Manager Herbert Walcha, who is retiring.

The new Campbell manager was formerly the operations officer for the W. Campbell ave. branch.

Play-off bound?

Brave cagers ready for successful '76-77 season

AFTER YEARS of floundering in the second division of the West Valley Athletic League, the Blackford basketball team appears to be ready to challenge for a play-off spot for the first time in its history.

"We feel we have a good team and we expect a good season," said Brave head coach Harry Harrington. "We're shooting for the play-offs. We think we're definitely in the top four teams."

Blackford's confidence grew, no doubt, during the abbreviated Westmont summer league when it toppled not only Camden and Westmont but the defending West Valley Athletic League champion Del Mar Dons, who are led by their awesome 6'11" center Mark McNamara.

The Braves boast seven varsity lettermen this season, including all five starters from last year's squad.

Blackford's starting quintet includes forwards Dean Ungari (6'4"), a second team all-leaguer last year, Mike Turnwall (6'2") and Craig Morioka (6'2"), and guards Mark Verbrugge (6') and Mark Kelley (5'10").

Other returners from last year's squad include center Mark Reid (6'5"), and guard Doug Ray (6'). Up from last year's frosh-soph squad are forward James Gandenburger (6'2"), center John Rossi (6'3"), and guards Tim Stanton (6') and Karl Snyder (5'11"). Tye Ferdenansen, a 5'10" sophomore guard, is a transfer from Mitty high school who is expected to lend plenty of aid to the Brave cause this year.

"We have a very good bench and that should be a critical factor this year in our league with two flu bugs going around," noted Harrington. "We have nine players who can play pretty equally."

"DEFENSIVE is our key," he went on. "We can board well but the main thing is we play good, tough defense."

Last season the Braves boasted the second best defense in the WVAL behind league champion Del Mar.

The Braves opened their season last Friday night on the road, capturing a 53-50 win over Peterson on the strength of a strong second half performance.

Ungari, who was shut-out in the first half, sparked the Brave second half surge with all of his game high 19 points. The muscular Blackford forward also grabbed 14 rebounds.

Morioka pumped in 16 points and Ferdenansen popped in seven.

"We were pretty nervous to start with," noted Harrington. "but once we settled down we played pretty well. By the time the regular season starts we'll be playing pretty good ball."

The Braves battle Milpitas Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. in the opening round of the Oak Grove invitational. Blackford finished second in the tourney last year, losing to Camden in the finals.

Toews first team pick

FORMER DEL MAR high school football star Tim Toews was picked to the first All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association offensive line for his performance of San Jose State University football team in the 1976 season.

Toews, a standout tackle for the Dons in his prep days, won a first team guard slot for the Spartans on the first all-PCAA offensive unit.

The 6'2" and 215 pound junior guard was an All-WVAL and All-SUN performer in his prep days at Del Mar.

Panthers' Hill nabs top honors

STEVE HILL, quarterback-safety of the Prospect Panthers, was tabbed Player of the Year last week by the coaches of the West Valley Athletic League at their annual all-league meeting.

Hill, who nearly led the Panthers to their first league championship, also earned Outstanding Offensive Back honors after being named to the first all-league team on both offense and defense.

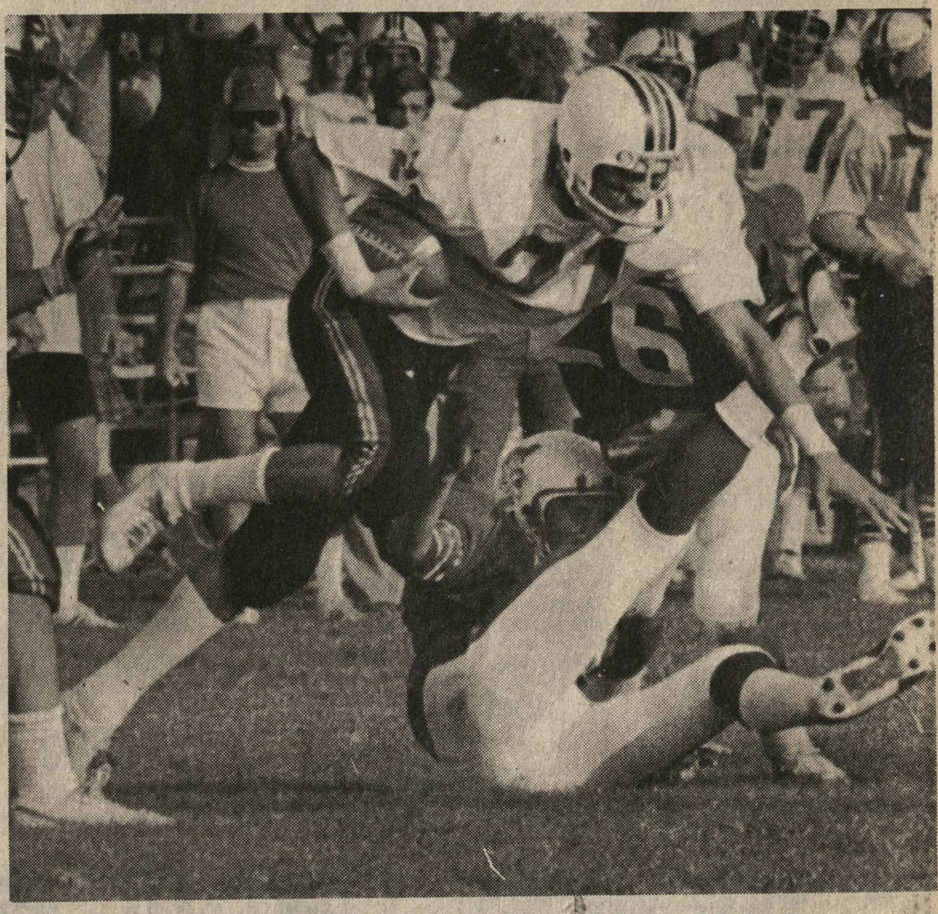
Del Mar's Pete Angeladakis and Los Gatos' John Breidenthal were also picked twice to the first team.

Angeladakis, who was selected Outstanding Defensive Lineman, was picked to the offense at tackle and to the first team defense as a down lineman.

Breidenthal, who was tabbed Outstanding Defensive Back, earned first team honors at both running back and defensive back.

Branham, the league champion, placed 11 players on the first and second teams, including four on the first squad. Los Gatos, however, captured five first team spots. Campbell, like the Bruins, claimed four first team berths.

Center Larry Bonsall, guard Rennie Bowers, defensive back Rich LeBleu and down lineman Jim Sorrentino comprised the Branham quartet. Campbell's foursome included tackle Kevin Smith, fullback Dave Burns, defensive end Steve Sexton and defensive back Mark Ryan.



SECOND TIME — Westmont's Rocky Pena was tabbed a first team all-league receiver for the second time last week by the West Valley Athletic League coaches. Pena joined teammate Eric Stark on the first team offensive.

Campbell hoopsters taking aim at post-season play

"I'M NOT predicting any championship," admitted Campbell basketball coach Jim Williams.

But Williams does feel his Buccaneers have a definite shot at making the West Valley Athletic League Shaughnessy playoffs this year.

"It'll take a lot of things going right, but if our kids are willing to work hard I think we have a shot at making the play-offs,'" the Buc boss said. "Anyway, that's what we're shooting for."

Campbell has a strong nucleus of five returning varsity cagers this season to build their play-off hopes around. The lettermen include 6'6" Bart Mathewson, 6'4" Ken Wegner, 6'3" Kevin McGrody, 6'2" Mickey Rymer and 5'11" Frank Giammona.

Wegner was a part-time starter last year while Mathewson and Giammona both saw plenty of action.

Mike Sullivan (6'1"), Don Ruby (5'11") are all up from last year's frosh-soph squad and are expected to help.

"It's hard to say just how well we'll do this year," said Williams. "The league is strong again, although it's not as strong as it was last year."

"We'll be improved over last year," promised Williams. "We have good strength inside and Giammona does a good job of handling the ball."

It would appear, at least on paper, that rebounding will be one of Campbell's main strengths, considering their better than average front line size.

Top cagers prepare for Westmont tourney

MONTA VISTA, which has won the tournament title in four of the last five years, and Westmont, which has never won it, will be among the eight teams competing for the 10th annual Westmont basketball invitational championship this week on the Warriors' court.

Westmont, which has finished second, third and fourth in its tourney, will battle unbeaten Lynbrook Wednesday night in the featured game at 8:30 p.m.

Earlier in the evening, Willow Glen and Branham will square-off at 7 p.m. Willow Glen (2-0) tallied 104 points in a victory over Andrew Hill last Saturday.

Thursday, Saratoga and Gunderson clash at 7 p.m. while Monta Vista and Los Gatos collide at 8:30 p.m. The Matadors are the defending champs after reclaiming the crown they wore from 1972-74.

Friday and Saturday games will be played at 4 p.m., 5:30 p.m., 7 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. in the Westmont gym.

Rainbows swept by Royals, Cunningham streak stopped

LIMITED to three hits in both games, the Del Mar Rainbows were swept by the Santa Clara Royals last Sunday in a Semi-Pro Winter League baseball doubleheader at Mitty high school.

Santa Clara, which came in second place during the first half of its AAA season, blanked the Rainbows 7-0 in the first half and then rallied to nudge them 5-4 in the nightcap.

Player-manager Gary Cunningham saw his 18 game hitting streak come to an end in the first game, drawing the collar in three trips to the plate.

Cunningham grounded to short, struck out and then was thrown out by the pitcher on a bunt attempt in the sixth.

"I had my pitches but I either fouled them off or hit them at someone," said Cunningham. "It was fun while it lasted. But now I can really appreciate what DiMaggio did when he hit in 56 straight games. That's incredible."

The only hits the 'Bows did manage in the first game were singles collected by Tom "Doc" Medica in the first inning, Dan McKay in the third and a triple by Mark Intrieri in the fourth.

IN THE second game, the Rainbows were being no-hit heading into the sixth before Fred Gradel beat out a perfect one out bunt. A walk to Eric Richesin and another bunt single, this one by Medica, loaded the bases.

Cunningham then gained a measure of revenge by drilling a line drive to center that sailed over the centerfielder's head and resulted in a grand slam homer.

Cunningham's belt gave Del Mar a 4-1 lead. But reliever Tom Bell was unable to preserve the win for starter Tom Harris. Bell walked the first three batters he faced and then gave up a single to left. The ball got past the DM leftfielder and all four Santa Clara runners came around to score.

Five of the Royals' 12 runs on the day came as a direct result of walks issued by Del Mar hurlers.

The Rainbows will try to get back on the winning track Sunday when they play a twinbill at PAL Stadium. Game times are 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Hunch cage sign-ups

A THREE MAN hunch basketball league will be offered by the Campbell Community Services department beginning in late January.

The league, which will hold its game at Campbell high school, will be broken into four divisions: 14-17 years of age and under 6'; 14-29, 6' and over; 18-29 and under 6', and 30 and older.

A manager's meeting will be held Monday, Jan. 10, in the employee lounge at Campbell City Hall beginning at 7 p.m.

For more information call Mark McCarroll at 378-8141, ext. 252.

Pena tops returners

Warriors small but competitive — Brinck

"WE'LL BE SMALL but competitive," promised head coach Gary Brinck as he prepared his Westmont Warrior basketball team for the upcoming 1976-77 season.

And judging by last week's 65-37 whipping of Watsonville, Brinck seems to know what he's talking about.

"We rely on balance," said Brink. "Size is our main weakness so we need good ball movement and team work."

The Warriors are built around returning forward Rocky Pena, a starter last year, and varsity letterman Mike Riley, Westmont's team captain this season from his guard position.

Rounding out the Westmont starting five will be center Eric Johnson, a 6'4" senior, forward Gene Hukkanen, a 6'2" senior, and guard Ron Williams, also a senior.

Williams would have lettered last year but missed the entire season when he broke his wrist in the Warriors' second game.

OTHER PLAYERS the Warriors will be counting on include Craig Waltz, a 6'2" forward, Bob Bossi, junior guard, Mike White, 5'11" guard-forward, Walt Ballard, senior guard, Bob Scrave, 6'6" back-up center, Tom Chaney, a senior forward with varsity experience, Jeff Citta, junior guard, and Jim McClure, a 6'2" transfer forward from southern California.

White is currently out with a bad ankle while Ballard is down with mononucleosis and may not be able to play this season.

"It's hard to say how we'll do this year," said Brinck, who nearly led the Warriors to the West Valley Athletic League play-offs last year. "We played very well against Watsonville but they weren't very strong."

The Warriors romped to a 41-17 halftime lead against Watsonville and then coasted the rest of the way, giving Westmont reserves some valuable playing time.

"It was a real team effort," said a pleased Brinck. "We played pretty good defense and that's something we'll need a lot of this season."

Pena led all scorers with 17 points while Riley chipped in with 14. Johnson, who led the team in rebounds with eight, and Williams both canned 10 points and Hukkanen added five. Waltz and Bossi both grabbed five carooms.

The Warriors host the 10th annual Westmont invitational beginning Wednesday evening. Westmont opens the tournament against unbeaten Lynbrook Wednesday in an 8:30 p.m. test.

Small Panther cagers out to improve in WVAL play

IN A LEAGUE dominated by big men, the Prospect Panthers will be noticeably small again this season. But that shouldn't stop the Panthers from putting together a better season than they suffered through last year, according to head coach Bert Robinson.

"I'm looking forward to a better season this year," said Robinson. "Although we're not very big, we do have better size than usual."

"If our kids work together and put down their individual interests to a cooperative effort we should do fairly well," added the Panther boss.

Seven returning lettermen dot Prospect's 1976-77 roster, including guard Bob White and 6'1" forward John Meehan, who were both parttime starters last year.

Other varsity returners include forward-center Bill Stokes (6'2"), center Jim Arthur (6'2"), forward Mike Aguilar (6'), and guards Steve Crawley (5'10") and Mark Ramirez (5'10").

The Panther will be bolstered this season by a pair of 6'3" center-forwards up from last year's frosh-soph team, Stan Kazmierczak and Paul Guenther. Guards Brett Guenther (5'11") and Ken Souza (5'10") and also up from the f-s squad.

Robinson's early season starting line-up consists of Kazmierczak, P. Guenther and Meehan in the front line and Ramirez and White in the backcourt.

"WE'LL HAVE TO be a good defensive team if we want to do well," noted Robinson. "But we should do better on the board then we have in the past because of our better size."

Prospect opened their season last week against Lynbrook and suffered a 55-36 setback.

"I was a little disappointed in our offensive effort," remarked the Panther mentor. "The kids worked pretty hard, though, and I was pleased with that."

Kazmierczak began his varisty career by sinking a team high 16 points.

Prospect travels to Peterson Friday night for an 8 p.m. contest before entering the Live Oak tournament next week.

Spartan matmen

THE SAN JOSE State University wrestling team will compete in the eighth annual Peterson Invitational tournament on Saturday, Dec. 11, at Chico State and will visit San Francisco State on Tuesday, Dec. 14, for a 7:30 p.m. match.

Cagers at Lick

FOR 21 YEARS the James Lick Comets have gotten together a group of area high school basketball teams for an early December tournament.

And for all of those 21 years the Comets have been around when the tournament champion was crowned at the conclusion of the final game.

But over the past two decades, the Comets have just been spectators at the crowning of the champion — Lick has never won its own tournament!

Well, the Comets will be out to break the jinx this week when they host the 22nd annual James Lick Invitational basketball tournament on Dec. 9, 10 and 11 in the Comet gym.

The tourney, one of the oldest and most prestigious in the Santa Clara Valley, will tip-off at 4 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 9, when Bobo Campbell leads the Mt. Pleasant Cardinals against St. Francis.

Defending Lick tourney champion Lincoln will meet Santa Clara high at 5:30 p.m. and host Lick will take on Sunnyvale at 7 p.m. on the opening day.

The championship game will be played on Saturday, Dec. 11, at 8:30 p.m. at Lick.

Admission to the toourney will be 75 cents for students with Student Body Cards and $1.50 for general admission on the first two days and $1 for students with ASB cards and $2 for general admission on Saturday.

Knights in semi-finals

Los Altos rolls over WCAL champ Bells

By DAVE MENDONCA

FOR THE LAST two years the Central Coast Section football champion has come from the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League. And judging by their performance last Wednesday evening at Spartan Stadium, the Los Altos Knights should make it three years in a row for the SCVAL.

The Knights looked just about as good as any high school football team possibly could last week, pounding out an impressive 23-10 victory over previously unbeaten Bellarmine, kingpin of the rugged West Catholic Athletic League.

Los Altos, which improved its season ledger to 11-0, unveiled a surprisingly brilliant offense to go with its remarkable defense to turn the big battle of the unbeatens into an unexpectedly lopsided victory.

Tackling with the fundamentals and intensity of a professional team, Los Altos literally beat the Bells up physically in the first half, enabling the Knights to turn a precarious 9-3 halftime lead into a comfortable 23-3 margin heading into the final 12 minutes of play.

Los Altos earned a berth in Friday night's semi-final contest against Santa Clara Valley Athletic League champ, Saratoga. The Falcons also take an 11-0 record into the contest following last Thursday's easy 23-13 triumph over the Branham Bruins.

Bellarmine actually scored first in last week's battle on a 25 yard field goal by Ned McIver after a 48 yard bomb from Kevin King to Dick Amor had gotten the Bells close.

McIVER'S field goal assured the Bells they would not become Los Altos' ninth shut-out victim of the year.

But Los Altos came roaring back following the ensuing kick-off behind the strong right arm of quarterback Bryan Clark.

Clark, completing three of six passes, led the Knights on an eight play, 69 yard march that concluded with his 23 yard touchdown toss to Jim Judkins circling out of the backfield.

Little Alan Goes (5'6'', 150 pounds), who later booted three field goals, missed the extra point try to leave Bellarmine within three points of LA.

But a Bellarmine fumbled Los Altos to get on the scoreboard one more time, on a 35 yard field goal by Goes with just four seconds left in the half, to take a 9-3 lead.

After playing the powerful Knights nearly even up in the first half, the Bells could no longer withstand the punishing play of their foes in the second half and succumbed to a 14 point third period explosion that put the game out of reach.

The Bells tried to pull off a miracle rally in the waning minutes of the game but could manage only a consolation score with 6:35 left when a frustrated Marc Rebboah capped an abbreviated 23 yard drive with a five yard touchdown scamper.

REBBOAH, who rushed over 1,000 yards in each of the last two seasons, was contained to just 17 yards on eight carries on the night.

The Bells, who boasted one of the best ground attacks in CCS this year, accumulated only 79 yards against Los Altos, largely became of the play of Ray Franklin, Brian Fitzpatrick, Phil Manouklan and Matt Pear.

Dick Amor and Mark Debruin were the Bells' leading rushers on the night with 22 yards each.

Los Altos, meanwhile, proved its offense could put points on the board behind the passing of Clark and the running of Doug Wilks.

Clark completed seven of 13 passes for 130 yards. All seven of his completions went for first downs.

Wilks gave the Knights balance by toting the ball 22 times for 106 yards and one touchdown.
